A Proxy may be revoked at any time before it is exercised by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company at its above address. Stockholders may vote their shares in person if they attend the Annual Meeting, even if they have executed and returned a Proxy. This Proxy Statement and accompanying Proxy Card were mailed to stockholders on or about August 10, 1995.

Your vote is important. Please complete and return the Proxy Card so your shares can be represented at the Annual Meeting, even if you plan to attend in person.

If a shareholder wishes to assign a proxy to someone other than the Directors' Proxy Committee, all three names appearing on the Proxy Card must be crossed out and the name(s) of another person or persons (not more than three) inserted. The signed card must be presented at the meeting by the person(s) representing the shareholder.

The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. The Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Proxies may also be solicited by certain of the Company's directors, officers, and regular employees, without additional compensation.

The matters to be brought before the Annual Meeting are (1) the election of directors to serve for the ensuing year, and (2) any other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Retirement Plans

George R. Quist, who has been Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company since 1979, has a Deferred Compensation Agreement, dated December 8, 1988, with the Company (the "Compensation Agreement"). This Compensation Agreement provides (i) upon Mr. Quist's retirement at the age of 70 or an earlier age as may be specified by the Board of Directors, the Company shall pay him $50,000 per year as an annual retirement benefit for a period of 10 years from the date of retirement; and (ii) upon his death, the remainder of such annual payments shall be payable to his wife, if she survives him.

The Compensation Agreement further provides that the Board of Directors may elect to pay the entire amount of deferred compensation in the form of a single lump-sum payment or other installment payments, so long as the term of such payments do not exceed 10 years. However, in the event Mr. Quist's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason other than retirement, death or disability, the entire deferred compensation shall be forfeited by him.

Director's Fees

Directors of the Company (but not including directors who are employees) are paid a director's fee of $7,200 per year by the Company and are reimbursed for any travel expenses incurred in attending Board meetings. No additional amounts are paid by the Company for committee participation or special assignments.

Effective May 1, 1991, the Securities and Exchange Commission adopted revised rules regarding reporting of beneficial ownership of securities by officers, directors, and owners of more than 10% of any class of a company's equity securities. During 1994, through an oversight, George R. Quist, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, filed one late stock purchase transaction report covering one transaction.

Employee Stock Ownership Plan

Effective January 1, 1980, the Company adopted an employee stock ownership plan (the "Ownership Plan") for the benefit of career employees and certain commissioned salespersons of the Company and its subsidiaries. The following is a description of the Ownership Plan, and is qualified in its entirety by the Ownership Plan, a copy of which is available for inspection at the Company's offices.

Under the Ownership Plan, the Company has discretionary power to make contributions on behalf of all eligible employees into a trust created under the Ownership Plan. Employees become eligible to participate in the Ownership Plan when they have attained the age of 19 and have completed one year of service (a twelve-month period in which the Employee completes at least 1,040 hours of service). The Company's contributions under the Ownership Plan are allocated to eligible employees on the same ratio that each eligible employee's compensation bears to total compensation for all eligible employees during each year. To date, the Ownership Plan has approximately 95 participants and had contributions payable to the Plan in 1994 of $54,288.

Benefits under the Ownership Plan vest as follows: 20% after the third year of eligible service by an employee, an additional 20% in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh years of eligible service by an employee. Benefits under the Ownership Plan will be paid out in one lump sum or in installments in the event the employee becomes disabled, reaches the age of 65, or is terminated by the Company and demonstrates financial hardship. The Ownership Plan Committee, however, retains discretion to determine the final method of payment. Finally, the Company reserves the right to amend or terminate the Ownership Plan at any time. The trustees of the trust fund under the Ownership Plan are Messrs. R.A.F. McCormick, George R. Quist, and William C. Sargent, all directors of the Company.

1987 Incentive Stock Option Plan

On December 1, 1987, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Security National Financial Corporation 1987 Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "1987 Plan"). The 1987 Plan was approved at the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders held on July 11, 1988. The purpose of the 1987 Plan is to help the Company attract and retain the best available persons for positions of substantial responsibility by providing certain officers and key employees with an additional incentive to contribute to the success of the Company.

The 1987 Plan, as amended, provides that the Company may grant options to acquire an aggregate of 320,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company to its officers and other key employees. The 1987 Plan provides authority for the formation of a Stock Option Plan Committee (the "Committee") which shall consist either of the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, to select the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, to whom incentive stock options will be granted. No person may be granted any options unless he or she agrees to remain an employee of the Company for at least two years. There are approximately eight persons eligible to receive options under the 1987 Plan. All officers may participate in the 1987 Plan.

The 1987 Plan terminates 10 years from the effective date. Options are non-transferrable. The Company is to receive no cash consideration for granting options under the 1987 Plan. However, when an option is exercised, the holder is required to pay the exercise price, in cash or certified bank check, shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock or in any combination of the above, for the number of shares of stock to be issued on exercise of the option unless the holder elects to receive cash or stock by exercise of stock appreciation rights.

Options to purchase an aggregate of 381,700 shares of Class A Common Stock have been granted under the 1987 Plan. Of these options, options to purchase 184,900 shares were granted on December 7, 1987, options to purchase 146,800 shares were granted on December 31, 1988, and options to purchase 50,000 shares were granted on June 19, 1989. The options to purchase 90,500 shares which had been granted to George R. Quist and William C. Sargent on December 7, 1987, expired on December 7, 1992, the options to purchase 53,200 shares which had been granted to George R. Quist and William C. Sargent on December 31, 1988, expired on December 31, 1993. The options to purchase 50,000 shares which had been granted to George R. Quist on June 19, 1989, expired on June 18, 1994, and the options to purchase 34,000 shares and 22,000 shares which had been granted to William L. 1993 Stock Option Plan

On June 21, 1993, the Board of Directors adopted the Security National Financial Corporation 1993 Stock Incentive Plan (the "1993 Plan"), which reserves 300,000 shares of Class A Common Stock for issuance thereunder. The 1993 Plan was approved at the annual meeting of the stockholders held on June 21, 1993. The 1993 Plan allows the Company to grant options and issue shares as a means of providing equity incentives to key personnel, giving them a proprietary interest in the Company and its success and progress.

The 1993 Plan provides for the grant of options and the award or sale of stock to officers, directors, and employees of the Company. Both "incentive stock options," as defined under Section 422A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), and "non-qualified options" may be granted pursuant to the 1993 Plan. On April 29, 1993, the Company granted options for 90,000 shares under the 1993 Plan to George R. Quist and William C. Sargent. Mr. Quist was granted options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock at an exercise price of $3.44 per share. Mr. Sargent was granted options to purchase 40,000 shares of Class A Common Stock at an exercise price of $3.13 per share. The exercise prices for the options granted are equal to or greater than the fair market value of the stock subject to such options as of the date of grant, as determined by the Company's Board of Directors. Of these recently granted options, 50% were exercisable on April 29, 1993 and the remaining 50% are exercisable on April 29, 1994.

The options granted on April 29, 1993, were to reward certain officers and key employees who have been employed by the Company for a number of years and to help the Company retain these officers by providing them with an additional incentive to contribute to the success of the Company.

The 1993 Plan is to be administered by the Board of Directors or by a committee designated by the Board. The terms of options granted or stock awards or sales effected under the 1993 Plan are to be determined by the Board of Directors or its committee. No options may be exercised for a term of more than ten years from the date of grant. Options intended as incentive stock options may be issued only to employees, and must meet certain conditions imposed by the code, including a requirement that the option exercise price be no less than the fair market value of the option shares on the date of grant. The 1993 Plan provides that the exercise price for non-qualified options will be not less than at least 50% of the fair market value of the stock subject to such option as of the date of grant of such options, as determined by the Company's Board of Directors.

The 1993 Plan has a term of ten years. The Board of Directors may amend or terminate the 1993 Plan at any time from time to time, subject to approval of certain modifications to the 1993 Plan by the shareholders of the Company as may be required by law or the 1993 Plan.
